Team Covenant

A major dynamic of an overseas mission trip are the ever changing variables of time zone changes, lack of sleep and logistical problems. It is essential that each team member understand the personal challenges these things will bring to your life. For us to be effective on our trip and represent the image of Christ at the highest level, biblical patterns of authority and teamwork must constantly be demonstrated. Throughout the planning stages we will be highlighting these areas for you to consider as you formulate your involvement on this missions trip.
